NOTIFICATION.

No. 4475—Law.150-52-4, dated Bangalore, 8th November 1952.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Article 165 (3) read with Article 238 (1) of the Constitution of India, and in partial modification of Notification No. 77—Law 388-49-5, dated 5th April 1950, defining the duties and the remuneration payable to the Advocate-General in Mysore, the Rajpramukh of Mysore, is pleased to make the following amendment to Part II of the said Notification :—

Substitute the following in place of sub-para (ii) (a) of para II under the heading "D—Remuneration" of the Notification, dated 5th April 1952 referred to above :—

"(a) for each day's attendance in a Criminal Court will be a fee not ordinarily exceeding Rs. 100 unless a higher sum is sanctioned by Government in consideration of the exceptional importance and difficulty of the case. When more than one case is conducted on the same day, separate fees not exceeding two-thirds of the above scale will be allowed for each case. When a case is adjourned without trial or merely struck off, the fee for the day should be limited to Rs. 25. No fee will be allowed for studying records for receiving instructions, for presenting an application or for filing a list of witnesses;"

By Order and in the name of the Rajpramukh,

N. R. JAYA RAO,
Secretary to Government,
Law Department.
